

Auction No. 21, 15-17 May 2009

<http://www.gmsquare.com/chessauction/index.html>

Lot 1. The Chess Player's Chronicle, L/N 6123. Volume II (1842), 416 pages. Individual issues (complete) collected and bound together in red cloth, with gilt spine. Spine faded slightly, light foxing to a few pages, otherwise very good.

Sold for €108.90

Lot 2. The Chess Player's Chronicle, L/N 6123. Volume VII, 1846, 420 pages, index. Half-bound in leather with marbled paperboards, gilt spine and raised bands. Corners bumped slightly, fine condition.

Sold for €99

Lot 3. The Chess Player's Chronicle, L/N 6123. Volume VIII, 1847, 422 pages, index. Half-bound in leather with marbled paperboards, gilt spine and raised bands. Corners bumped, spine and covers rubbed, spine is partially split from the upper cover top and bottom, light foxing to a some pages, otherwise very good. A small dedication on the title page reads: "Presented to the Glasgow Chess Club by its oldest member W.

Unsold

Lot 4. The Chess Player's Chronicle, L/N 6123. Volume IX, 1848, 376 pages, index. Edited by Howard Staunton. Half-bound in leather with marbled paperboards, gilt spine and raised bands. Corners bumped slightly, fine condition. Curiously, the half-title page gives the date as MDCCCXLIX (1849), which is clearly wrong – 1848 is given on the title page.

Sold for €99

Lot 5. The Chess Player's Chronicle, L/N 6123. 1880, 288 pages. Individual issues (complete) collected and bound together in green cloth, with a gilt ticket to spine. Very clean and crisp, fine.

Sold for €90

Lot 6. The Chess Player's Magazine. New Series, volume 1, 1865. L/N 6124. 384 pages. Half-bound in leather with marbled boards and gilt ticket to spine. Corners bumped, covers are slightly rubbed at the corners. Very good.

I noticed a couple of curious errors - page 64 is given as 46 and page 160 is given as 170. I think that there is a (typing) mistake in L/N concerning this periodical – L/N gives its dates as 1863- October 1867. It should be 1865 to October 1867.

Sold for €177.12

Lot 7. The Chess Player's Magazine. New Series, volumes 2 and 3 bound together, 1866 – October 1867. L/N 6124. 378 and 319 pages. Half-bound in brown leather with raised bands and gilt spine. Corners bumped, Café International stamp to title page of volume II, some pages browned, otherwise very good.

Sold for €367.20

Lot 8. The Westminster Papers. A monthly journal of chess, whist, games of skill and the drama. A complete run - volumes 1 to 11; April 1868 to 1st of April 1879.

L/N 6131. In five big volumes, all universally quarter-bound in green leather, with marbled paperboards and gilt tickets to spines. Glasgow Chess Club Library ticket to endpapers.

Volume 1 (includes volumes I-III, 144, 202 and 202 pages respectively). Complete with indices. Corners bumped, top half of the spine is split from the upper board, small tear to the edges of the May 1868 issue, not affecting the text, otherwise fine.

Volume 2 (includes volumes IV-V, 224 and 206 pages respectively) Complete with indices. Corners bumped, spine is slightly rubbed, fine.

Volume 3 (includes volumes VI-VII, 262 and 256 pages respectively) Complete with indices. Corners bumped, spine is slightly rubbed, lower half of the spine is split from the upper board, otherwise fine.

Volume 4 (includes volumes VIII-IX, 258 and 242 pages respectively) Complete with indices. Corners bumped, spine is slightly rubbed, top half of the spine is split from the upper board, otherwise very good.

Volume 5 (includes volumes X-XI, 232 and 272 pages respectively) Complete with indices. Corners bumped, spine is slightly rubbed, top quarter of the spine is split from the upper board, otherwise fine.
